'MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH MOST IMPORTANT OF THE WAR'—DAILY TELEGRAPH: IRON WILL OF THE BRITISH

Precise Statement On War And Peace Aims

LONDON, NOV. 27 (BRITISH WIRELESS)—THE PRIME MINISTER'S BROADCAST ADDRESS LAST NIGHT IS DESCRIBED BY THE DAILY TELEGRAPH AS THE MOST IMPORTANT SPEECH OF THE WAR. HIS CALM WORDS, SAYS THE DAILY MAIL, REFLECT THE IRON WILL OF THE BRITISH PEOPLE AT WAR.

THE DAILY EXPRESS SAYS THE SPEECH STAMPS MR. CHAMBERLAIN AS THE REAL LEADER OF A PEOPLE AT WAR.

Special prominence is given to his statement of war and peace aims and the News-Chronicle which, among other newspapers, has called for a more precise statement on the sort of Europe to be created when the war is won, enthusiastically welcomes the speech and declares the aims could hardly have been stated in a more specific form.

Free German Sender

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—Another Freedom Station is now broadcasting from Germany. It calls itself the Free German Sender and declares that it is broadcasting "from the Ruhr district."

BLOCKADE OF NAZI EXPORTS

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—The King held a Privy Council this morning at which the Order-in-Council authorising British blockade of German exports was passed. It will be published tomorrow.

It will be accompanied by an explanation and it will be found that close attention had been paid to neutrals' interests, Reuter learns.

The application of the Order may be delayed for a few days in order to get the machinery working with the minimum of friction.

TOKYO STATEMENT

TOKYO, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—Asked for clarification of the Foreign Office spokesman's statement that Britain had promised not to interfere with German exports on neutral ships, a spokesman told Reuter today that the British Government issued a declaration to this effect on September 22.

In September, the spokesman said, the Japanese Embassy in London had forwarded to the British Ministry of Economic Warfare a questionnaire on the various points regarding the British blockade.

On September 22, added the spokesman, the Ministry of Economic Warfare informed the Japanese Embassy that the British authorities would not take any action, even in British territorial waters, against neutral ships carrying goods of German manufacture to neutral countries.

The spokesman added that he was not aware that Japan had carried out similar seizures during the Great War.

When a Chinese detective attempted to search a man near a bus stop yesterday morning, the man is alleged to have whipped out a gun and attempted to shoot the policeman. Fortunately the gun mis-fired. The detective, it is alleged, then drew out his revolver and shot the man in the thigh. The man was taken to the hospital.

NAZI MASSACRE OF STUDENTS

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—Travellers returning from Czechoslovakia state that the Nazis executed 120 students from the Prague University 10 days ago.

One thousand two hundred students were marched to the aerodrome outside the city and one in every ten were lined up against the wall and shot while the other students had to watch the execution. They were then taken to concentration camps.

ALLIES' SHIPPING LOSSES IN WEEK

LONDON, Nov. 27 (BWS)—The Allies' shipping losses during the week ended November 25 were 11 British vessels totalling 25,787 tons and two French ships of which one was the Rhys, 2,921 tons, and the other a small fishing craft.

British ships were the Pensilva, 4,258 tons, Darino 1,351 tons, Sea Sweeper 329 tons, Dolphin 250 tons, Thomas Hankins 276 tons, Geraldus 2,459 tons, Sulby 287 tons, Lowland 974 tons, Hookwood 1,537 tons, Mangalore 8,886 tons, Royston Grange 5,144 tons.

NEUTRAL LOSSES

Neutral losses were one Italian ship of 5,857 tons, one Swedish of 1,588 tons, one Japanese of 11,930 tons, and one Greek of 4,576 tons giving a total of neutral losses of 23,949 tons.

One of the methods adopted by Germany in endeavouring to escape the odium of sinking neutrals was revealed in the case of the Dutch vessel Sildrecht, sunk by a German submarine on November 18 in mid-Atlantic.

Referring to this incident the Germans announce that they had sunk a British Q-ship disguised as a Dutch merchantman.

The full story of the sinking was however given when five of the crew of the Sildrecht were landed on the north-west coast of Britain on November 23 after 7 days in open boats.

PRIZE VESSEL ATTACKED

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter's Special War Service)—The German merchantman Borkum, which was captured by a British warship and being brought to port, was attacked by a U-boat and set on fire. She was abandoned and driven ashore.

There were no casualties among the prize crew but four Germans were killed.

Another German merchantship, the Konsul Fenrik Fisser, was captured by a British warship and brought into harbour.

BRITISH STEAMER IN COLLISION

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—The British steamer Standgate which gained prominence in the news for her exploits during the Spanish war in running through General Franco's blockade, was damaged in a collision off the south-east coast of England and had to be beached.

CHINESE MINISTERS TO REMAIN

CHUNGKING, Nov. 27 (Central)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, the new President of the Executive Yuan, has rejected the en bloc resignation of all the cabinet members under Q. H. H. Kung, the retiring President.

All the ministers, commission chairmen, chief of the political department, and the secretary-general of the Executive Yuan are asked by Generalissimo Chiang to remain in office.

New Ministry For Control Of China's Foreign Trade

CHUNGKING, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—The first definite indication of the impending changes in the personnel and organisation of the Chinese Government was contained in the leading articles published this morning in the Central Daily News, official organ of the Chinese Government, as well as in the Sao Tao Pao, organ of the Chinese Army.

The Central Daily News wholeheartedly supports the Chinese Government's decision to create a new ministry to be known as the Ministry of Commerce predicting that with the establishment of the new ministry for control of China's foreign trade, the volume and scope of foreign trade of this country will be further increased.

THREE FACTORS

Attention is drawn to three main factors necessary for the expansion of China's foreign trade, namely:

First, improvement in transportation facilities to prevent unnecessary delay.

Second, increased production particularly in agricultural products with special attention to improvement in agricultural methods, and.

Third, maintenance of exchange stability.

While supporting the Government's decision to create the new ministry, the Sao Tao Pao emphasised the importance of simplifying Government administration and the amalgamation of those existing Government departments, whose duties are overlapping each other, not only to increase efficiency but to reduce expenditure of the Government.

Three Dominion representatives who had been in London for the Empire Ministers' conference took leave of the King yesterday. They are the representatives of India, Canada and South Africa, says Reuter.

POLICE METHOD OF ARRESTING PERSONS WITHOUT SUSPICION CENSURED BY CHIEF JUSTICE

Sessions' Murder Trial Revelations

STRONG WORDS WERE USED BY THE CHIEF JUSTICE, SIR ATHOLL MACGREGOR, WHEN, AFTER REVELATIONS MADE IN EVIDENCE DURING A MURDER TRIAL AT THE CRIMINAL SESSIONS YESTERDAY, he censured the police method of arresting people in the street, without suspicion, and detaining them without any charge being preferred against them.

His Lordship's observations were made while Police Sgt. Li Chau-shing was giving evidence of the arrest of TANG CHU, alias SHU HANG-TSAI, 24, who was in the dock charged with the murder of Leung Ki, 21, in Chinese Street on September 28.

Sgt. Li said that he arrested accused in Tang Lung Street on October 3, while two others, who accompanied accused, were also taken into custody. In answer to his Lordship, Sgt. Li said that he arrested the other two men for inquiries to be made.

Chief Justice: On what charge did you arrest the other two men?—Only for inquiry. The rule book says that a police officer has the authority to arrest on suspicion after sunset.

One of them was an informer. Was he not?—Yes.

Why did you arrest him?—Because he did not want to be exposed as an informer.

His Lordship thereupon directed that the matter be inquired into and told witness he would be required to continue his evidence this morning.

Mr. J. B. Prentis, Assistant Crown Solicitor, who prosecuted in the case, told the Court that the two men were detained till the morning and released.

His Lordship asked why the two men were detained, and Mr. Prentis said that he would get a full report.

CHIANG'S SPEECH

Full text of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's speech at the Sixth Plenary Session of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang begins today on Page 6.

"I want a full report because I am told by the Sergeant that there was no suspicion concerning the two men," said his Lordship.

NOT FIRST CASE

"It seems that this is not the first case of its kind. That persons are arrested or liable to be arrested merely because of the company they keep is a matter, as far as I am aware, for which there is no authority, statutory or otherwise."

"I also want the rule book concerning the placing of penal powers in the hands of Chinese constables or non-commissioned officers."

Basic Plan For Control Of Export Of Essential Food Supplies From Britain Outlined By Mr. W. J. Carrie

DETAILS OF THE FOOD CONTROL SCHEME WERE EXPLAINED TO REPRESENTATIVES OF OVER 20 CONCERNS IMPORTING FOODSTUFFS FROM ABROAD BY THE CONTROLLER OF FOOD, MR. W. J. CARRIE, AT A MEETING HELD IN THE URBAN COUNCIL CHAMBER YESTERDAY.

Outlining the basic plan for the control of export of essential food supplies from Great Britain, Mr. Carrie said that full control would be brought into force as soon as possible and orders from Hongkong would not normally be fulfilled in England unless endorsed by the Controller of Food.

The general aim, he said, was to ensure that each part of the Empire received its fair share of the available supplies of its essential food requirements.

There was no intention of diverting transactions from normal trade channels, and normal trade practice would be interfered with as little as possible. Conservation of foreign exchange and shipping were, however, factors to be considered.

Appealing for the co-operation of importers, Mr. Carrie said that he desired to make a survey of the essential minimum requirements for Hongkong.

Once this had been decided a report would be telegraphed to London.

dom and approved monthly requirements would be fixed between the Home and local authorities.

"These monthly requirements will be adhered to as far as possible and will be given priority," he said. "But modification may be necessary as time goes on. We are promised full information if the supply position should improve and we shall be allowed to share in the benefit of any such improvement."

He asked importers to provide absolutely necessary minimum figures, but stated that orders in excess of the approved figure stood a chance of being fulfilled if supplies were sufficient at the time the orders were received in London.

FIVE MAIN CLASSES

Mr. Carrie mentioned five main classes of foodstuffs, as follows:—

1. Foodstuffs containing sugar as a basic component, such as confectionery, sweetmeats, jams, preserves etc.
2. All forms of cereals, except rice, including biscuits, and all forms of feeding stuffs.
3. All forms of meat and fish, including tinned and bottled products.
4. Milk, condensed, evaporated, dried etc., and cream and cheese.
5. All other foodstuffs.

Mr. Carrie said that the first four categories are already under full control by the Ministry of Food.

"A record will be kept of all orders," said Mr. Carrie, "and these should be submitted immediately to the Controller of Food. Until the full scheme is working, endorsement will have no effect but gradually the scheme will be brought into operation. All orders

Christmas Mail For Troops

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—Special arrangements are being made to handle Christmas mail for British troops in France. The postal staff in France has been increased by 100 while 200 padres will help at centres to distribute the letters during the rush. At present 3,000 letters pass through the Post Office daily for men in France while about the same number is being received for delivery at Home.

GOOD SCORES AT H.K.R.A. SUNDAY SHOOT IN SPITE OF POOR WEATHER CONDITIONS: B.W.O.F. BENEFITTED BY $149

G.O.C. PRESENTS PRIZES

A bitterly cold wind of gale force blowing down the range from the butts, greeted the H.K.R.A. officials when they arrived on the Kowloon City range at 7.30 a.m. on Sunday, but conditions fortunately improved somewhat later.

In spite of the unfavourable conditions, 95 members took part and several good scores were obtained.

Lt. C. E. Otway, of the R.E.s, secured the nett spoon for aperture sights with 91 out of 100, and handicap spoons were won by F/Sgt. F. Tollison, R.A.F. Bdm. W. Kifford, and Mr. A. F. Evans, R.A.F. for this class.

S.R. (a) CLASS

In the S.R. (a) Class the nett spoon was won by L/Sgt. O. T. Leong, of the H.K.P.R., with 82, and handicap spoons were won by P/Sgt. N. L. Fan, of the H.K.P.R., L.A.C. J. Berry, R.A.F., Spr. E. W. Allo, R.E.s A/Sgt. W. Ure, 1/Mx. and Pte. R. A. Castro, H.K.V.D.C.

Nett range score prizes went to C/Sgt. P. Hale, P/Sgt. A. C. Chan, Sgt. W. T. Sargent and L/Sgt. G. Puran Singh, who also won the revolver spoon with a score of 45.

"PAIRS" COMPETITION

Prizes for the "Pairs" competition went to F/Sgt. F. Tollison and L.A.C. Berry, R.A.F. C/Sgt. Hale and Sgt. Baker, 1/Mx. and P.S.M. Cooper and Cpl. Langford, 1/Mx.

The affiliated clubs team match was won by the R.E.s with a score of 503 and the affiliated Clubs' open sight team match was won by the H.K.P. with 403.

In the Clay Bird shooting Capt. W. Newton, 1/Mx. won his own cup, and Mr. Evans was second, winning a spoon.

CLUB "A" BEAT KAI TAK AT RUGBY

BY "HOOKER"

In a very close friendly rugby match at the Valley yesterday, Club "A," fielding only fourteen men, defeated Kai Tak by 11 points to nil.

Bad light hampered the players, who for quite a time did not seem to be able to follow the ball.

Scorers for the Club were Bosanquet (two tries), Van Leeuwen (one try) and Charter (a kicked goal).

Outstanding for the Club were Bosanquet, Walkden and Godfrey, whilst for Kai Tak, Fl-Lieut. Wright, H. D. Stewart and L.A.C. Gash played a good game.

Hongkong Cycling Club Outings To Be Resumed: H.A.G. Keates In S'pore

No doubt the readers of cycling notes have been wondering what has happened to the Hongkong Cycling Club. Lately "its" activities have been nil, due to the fact that many of our officials have left the Colony as a result of reactions of the present war. One of those officials, we regret to state, is H.A.G. Keates, who incidentally has left many records to be broken.

Those officials now in the Colony have been extremely busy with their various businesses and have not been able to give the club their valued assistance.

However, as life seems to be settling down to normal once more, the club hopes to continue as before with their usual Sunday and mid-week runs, also to promote several short distance time trials in the near future.

ATTEMPTS ON RECORDS. Record attempts have been forgotten by the European members recently, while quite a few of our Chinese members (we believe) have been training on the Q. T. Mr. P. Stanley is seriously considering an attempt on a "5" mile record and we hope to see this rider being successful within the next few weeks. He keeps checking up on H. A. G. Keates times for that distance and we wish him all the best for his day.

As mentioned before, Keates has left the Colony and has gone to Singapore where he is still finding his cycle is the quickest means of transport, though he has not yet associated himself with club activities there.

LADIES TENNIS TOURNAMENT

SINGLES & DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Ladies' Singles and Doubles Tennis Championships of Hongkong will be held under the auspices of the United Services Recreation Club and entries are now invited.

The tournament will be conducted under the present rules and regulations of the Hongkong Lawn Tennis Association. The entrance fee will be $3 for each event by each competitor and entries should be sent to the Tennis Secretary of the U.S.R.C. on or before Dec. 2.

EARLY ROUNDS

The first round and byes are to be played off on or before Dec. 10; the second and third rounds on or before Dec. 20, while the semi-finals and finals will be played on the U.S.R.C. courts on dates to be notified later.

The Challenge Cup, presented by Mrs. J. J. Paterson, will be awarded to the winner of the Ladies' Singles for retention for one year and prizes will be provided by the U.S.R.C.

BOWLING ALLEYS COMPETITION

With a handicap of 14 pins per game, G. North beat Gene Faggiano by 13 pins in the first round of the Singles Handicap Competition at the Hongkong Bowling Alleys last evening.

Detailed results follow:—
G. North 147, 142, 128 (handicap 42); Total 459.
Gene Faggiano 175, 123, 148; Total 446.

INTER-REGIMENTAL POLO TOURNAMENT BEGINS: 32 GOALS IN 3 GAMES

Fixed Defences Defeat H.K.S.R.A. "A" Team

AFTER TWO POSTPONEMENTS THE INTER-REGIMENTAL POLO TOURNAMENT COMMENCED YESTERDAY WITH THREE MATCHES. In the first game the Fixed Defences beat the H.K.S.R.A. "A" (plus three) by seven to four, the Royal Scots then played the Middlesex Regiment (plus four whom they defeated by 12 goals to six, and Staff and Department (plus one) lost to the H.K.S.R.A. "B" by two goals to nine.

The players were distinguished numbers for the first time. This is an innovation in local polo and enabled the spectators to follow the games with added interest.

A feature of the evening's play was the number of goals scored. A total of 32 goals were shot in the three games in 90 minutes of actual play—a goal nearly three minutes of play. This rapid rate of scoring made the games more than usually interesting and although the majority of chukkers were not particularly fast or brilliant, spectators' interest was maintained throughout and play was conspicuous for clean, hard hitting and the almost entire absence of fouls. The umpires whistles were not used for penalty purposes more than two or three times during the whole afternoon.

The teams were:—
Royal Scots: Godley, Gilbertson, Burn and Fergus.
Middlesex Regt: Fishbourne, Hancock, Chatter, and Capt. Chatter.
STAFF & DEPT. v. H.K.S.R.A. "B"

The last game between the Staff and Dept. and the H.K.S.R.A. "B" was played in falling light which was not conducive to good polo. Starting with a handicap of plus one the Staff and Dept. were soon equalled by the gunners who scored quite early in the game, but Rochfort-Boyd increased the Staff's score before the chukker ended.

Marshall shot the equaliser for the gunners and Wilson put them on the lead. Marshall then added another and the chukker ended with the gunners leading four-two.

Combining well Marshall and Wilson further increase the gunners' score and Atkinson shot the gunners' sixth before the chukker ended. The Staff and Dept. were still two.

Three more goals were scored by the gunners in the final chukker. A penalty against the gunners was taken by Rochfort-Boyd without success and the game ended with the gunners winners by nine to two.

The teams were:—
Staff and Dept: Bousfield, Rochfort-Boyd, Moody and Whitehead.
H.K.S.R.A. "B": Atkinson, Marshall, Wilson and Temple.

The last chukker was dull and uninteresting with no change in the score and game ended with the Fixed Defences winning by seven to four.

Fixed Defences—Morgan, Forrester, Hunt and Field.
H.K.S.R.A. "A"—Duncan, Colson, Penfold, Nicholson.

R. SCOTS v. MIDDLESEX

This was by far the most spectacular game of the evening and saw as many as 14 goals scored—almost half the day's total. Gilbertson was brilliant while Burn and the two Chatterys were conspicuous throughout some fast and really interesting polo.

Lt. Chatter scored for the Middlesex within the first minute of the start. This put his five up as their handicap was plus four. Fergus then scored the first for the Scots from a penalty, but before the chukker ended the Scotsmen had scored another, bringing the score to five-two.

Scrappy play marked the second chukker. Burn scored twice in fairly quick succession and a neat fast one by Gilbertson brought the score level. Just before the bell Burn again shot in a beauty from under his pony's neck and the Scotsmen were leading six-five.

Midfield play marked the early stages of the third chukker when Gilbertson scored from a hard drive almost from midfield level with no opposition. This was followed by another long and successful drive by Gilbertson.

Hancock then knocked in the sixth for the Middlesex. Gilbertson increased the Scotsmen's score to nine and before the chukker ended

Barracking Of Referees By European Spectators

OFFICERS ELECTED AT MEETING

Reference to the barracking of referees by European spectators at League soccer matches was made by Mr. R. M. Omar, chairman of the Hongkong Football Referees' Association's general meeting yesterday. The meeting was well attended and several important matters were dealt with.

In his opening address to the meeting, Mr. Omar thanked the members for the co-operation they had given him during his tenure of the chairmanship following the departure of Mr. Finch. Mr. Omar said that he appreciated the whole-hearted way in which the members had worked with him and expressed the hope that they would extend the same co-operation to the new chairman.

"Another point I wish to refer to, is the barracking of referees by European spectators," continued Mr. Omar. "This matter has now been taken by the Football Association and we will probably hear the end of it."

He then appealed to all referees of the Hongkong Football Association to join the Referees' Association.

ACCOUNTS ADOPTED

The accounts and the draft rules, with one amendment, were then adopted, and Dec. 15 (Friday) was fixed as the date for the annual dinner, which, like the last, will probably be held at the Hotel Cecil.

The following office-bearers were then elected for the ensuing year—Chairman, Mr. D. B. Mitchell; Secretary, Mr. F. J. Silva; Committee, Mr. W. H. Glover (Royal Navy), Mr. M. Minihan (Army) and Mr. D. B. Mitchell (Civilians).

It was decided that the Hongkong Football Association be written to on the following matters:—

1. That qualified referees should be used as linesmen at Second Division League matches.

In supporting the motion, the chairman said the standard of Second Division football had greatly improved in

FILM ACTOR TO DO LAND WORK

Desmond Tester, the young film actor, who took the part of a drummer boy in a Highland regiment in the colour film "The Drum," is a pacifist. He told the South-eastern Tribunal in London that he also objected to entertaining the troops or wounded men in hospital and that he would not take part in a propaganda film.

On condition that he undertook agricultural work he was registered as a conscientious objector.

Tester, whose full name is Sidney Desmond Tester, lives at Bayfield Cottages, Little Bookham, Surrey. He said that he was not employed at the moment, as when the war came film business finished.

"KILLING FUTILE"

"For me killing is utterly wrong and futile, and so I have refused to do it," he declared.

"I consider that aiding and abetting or helping the Army in any way is equally wrong, as it is just helping the soldiers who are at the front, so I have refused that as well."

Asked if he has any objection to doing civil work, such as farming, Tester replied: "No. Although the potatoes I might help to grow might go to the Army, it is a service to the land itself, and to civilians. The land has to be looked after whether there is a war or not."

NO OBJECTION

Tester said that he had held his views about killing for the last two years. He had no objection to working on the land, but if a film came along which was not "obviously propaganda or anything like that" he would like to be available to take part in it.—Manchester Guardian.

GIRLS TO BE SIGNALLERS AT NAVAL STATIONS

Sea Rangers—a branch of the Girl Guide movement equivalent to Sea Scouts—are being invited to join the W. R. N. S. as signallers and wireless telegraphists.

They must be ready to serve where required, and not less than 18 years of age.

Some Sea Rangers are now members of the River Emergency Service.

Members of the W. R. N. S. served as signallers at some of the naval stations during the last war.—Evening Standard.

ACTION DRAMA AT MAJESTIC TOMORROW

Thrill races after thrill in Columbia's latest action drama, "Highway Patrol," which opens at the Majestic Theatre tomorrow.

The new picture is a hard-hitting narrative of a gasoline price-cutting war, with its major sequences devoted to the defence of a mammoth oil refinery against the dynamiting tactics of business competitors seeking to destroy it.

Robert Paige, likeable young lead, seen in Columbia's "There's Always A Woman," here shares top honours with pretty Jacqueline Wells.

The romantic team of Paige and Wells presents the spirited comedy of the boy-ignores-girl, boy-gets-girl, boy-gets-heart type. Miss Wells plays an active part in the melodramatic developments, melodrama that is given the air of reality by the authentic background of a huge oil refinery in California.

Many punch moments and an untold locale add to the appeal of this action story.

DISPOSAL OF CHINA AFFAIR NOT SO SIMPLE

JAPANESE PREMIER'S ADMISSION

TOKYO, Nov. 27 (Reuter).—There are some who believe that the disposal of the China affair meant the establishment of a new Central Government in China, the collapse of the Chiang Kai-shek regime and the withdrawal of the Japanese forces from China. Such an idea is a great mistake, declared the Japanese Prime Minister, Gen. Abe, in a speech delivered at a dinner party held in his honour at Osaka.

The disposal of the China affair, he went on, is not so simple. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has at present at hand 240 divisions, in addition to approximately more than 1,000,000 guerrillas infesting remote places.

YEARS REQUIRED

The Japanese Premier urged the nation to be prepared to meet the situation as it would require years for settling the China affair completely. If they took into consideration economic problems, the attitude of third powers and how to dispose of those forces under Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

VARIOUS DIFFICULTIES

It was inevitable that they should strengthen their economic control in order to cope with the various difficulties arising from the China affairs.

Gen. Abe concluded: "Japan desires to shake hands with the foreign power who would open their arms for similar purposes, but Japan should not rely upon them too much."

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR MA HSIANG-PO

CHUNGKING, Nov. 27 (Central).—More than 1,000 people here yesterday held a memorial service for the late Mr. Ma Hsiang-po, centenarian scholar, who passed away recently at Lianshan, Kwangsi.

Among those present were Dr. H.H. Kung, Mr. Wu Chih-hui, Mr. Shao Li-tze, Dr. Paul Yu Pin and Mr. Lu Chao representing Chairman Lin Sen.

High tribute was paid to the centenarian in speeches by Mr. Wu Chih-hui, veteran member of the C.S.C., and Mr. Yu Yu-jen, President of the Control Yuan.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGES

CHUNGKING, Nov. 27 (Central).—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and Dr. H.H. Kung, Vice-President of the Executive Yuan, have sent messages of condolence to the family of the late Mr. Ngai Kwong-yim, Chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce at Bangkok, who was murdered in Thailand on November 21.

Mr. Ngai was a fervent patriot. He had donated large sums of money to the National Government since the outbreak of the current hostilities.

NEWSETTES

The College of Agriculture of the National Chungshan University has established an extensive rice experimental station to study and improve rice production. The site of the station is not disclosed.

The Kweichow Provincial Government has prohibited wine brewing and sugar refining by rice, wheat and other grains. The measure is calculated to conserve the nation's food supply during the war, and will be enforced from December 16.

To help overseas Chinese returning to or emigrating from Welyung, Melhalen and other East River towns, the Kwangtung Provincial Government has established an office on the East River rendering protection and special assistance. Ordinarily and before the fall of Swatow, the Swatow route was used in preference to the East River route.

WAR IS RESULT OF AGGRESSION

Military Victory Alone Is Not Sufficient

CHUNGKING, Nov. 26 (Central).—Urging the adherents of the International Peace Campaign to continue their efforts in spite of the war, in the interest of the ideals of the Campaign, Lord Cecil, International President of the Campaign, points out, in an open letter that war is the result of aggression by the strong against the weak and that the world would not be subjected to those needless sufferings of war, if the governments had accepted and enforced those principles of the Campaign.

I.P.C. PRINCIPLE

Clarifying the position of the Campaign in the present controversy, the indefatigable peace-worker said, "We defend, as we have always done, the principle that order will rule the world in a methodical manner and that every country will be able to carry on its business in peace and security."

"We maintain," declares Lord Cecil, "that war is the result of aggression by the strong against the weak, and that all those loving justice should hope for the failure of such aggression. As long as this object is not attained, there will be no durable peace."

GREAT ROLE

"The military victory alone is, however, not sufficient. It is up to us to establish a new order in the family of nations, strong enough to prevent the repetition of the international crime. In this effort

Indignation In Sweden

ILLEGAL LAYING OF MINES

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 27 (Reuter).—The Swedish paper Dagens Nyheter expresses the general indignation felt in the country at Germany's illegal mine-laying. This form of operation, the paper warns, will not pass without affecting the economic relations of the two countries.

Indignation is also expressed at the fact that a total of 38 Swedish ships have been captured and are being held at German ports. Many of these ships were on their way to the United States and eight were in ballast.

CLEAR VIOLATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (Reuter).—Mr. Edwin James, Managing Director of the New York Times, in a long article, declares that German publicity on the subject of mine warfare has not been handled with Dr. Goebbels' usual skill.

For four days he denied responsibility and then put forward the defence of the new mines and thus, presumably, accepted responsibility.

The German defence is below par and not much better than a feeble attempt to justify the poison gas of 1915.

There is little doubt that the laying of loose mines is a violation of the letter of the Hague Treaties.

NORWAY'S MOVE

Oslo, Nov. 27 (Reuter).—It is understood that the Norwegian Government is to make representations to London in connection with the latest measures by the Allies in pursuance of economic warfare.

the International Peace Campaign has a great role to play."

INTERMEDIARY BETWEEN EXECUTIVE AND PUBLIC OPINION

WAR HAS SHOWN PARLIAMENT AT ITS VERY BEST

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter).—The British press yesterday was confident that an effective method to deal with Nazi mine-laying will soon be found.

Writing in the Observer, Mr. J. L. Garvin says that under Mr. Winston Churchill there is no slowness today. More than ever there was the need for an overwhelming air supremacy of the Allies to carry the war right into the enemy's country.

AT ITS VERY BEST

The Observer also comments on the Parliament Session, which ended on Thursday, saying that the war has shown Parliament at its very best in spirit and efficiency. The House of Commons put factions behind it and no further refutation of the incapacity of Democracy, in wartime was needed than is provided by the record of the past three months.

STRIFE SUBDUED

The Sunday Times says that during the period of defence preparation, strife between parties immediately became subdued. Parliament was working as a free assembly, a forum of the nation, play and honest and constructive rendering valuable service as an criticism.

Chungking To Hami Air Service

INAUGURATION ON DECEMBER 1

LANCHOW, Nov. 27 (Central).—All preparations having been completed, the Chungking-Hami air passenger and mail service under the Ministry of Communications will be formally inaugurated on Dec. 1.

For the start, a weekly service will be maintained. Passenger fare for the Lanchow-Hami sector is fixed at $1,000, while for the Chungking-Lanchow sector the passenger fare will be the same as for Eurasia planes.

intermediary between executive and public opinion.

SINGLE CONSIDERATION

The progress of the war is the single public consideration which dominates all others, but the function of Parliament remains that while no necessary sacrifice is required, the country retains the strength of its own freedom and maintains the principle of fair play and honest and constructive rendering valuable service as an criticism.

Annual Meeting Of H.K. Girl Guides' Association

The annual meeting of the Girl Guides' Association was held yesterday morning in Sandilands Hut, Lady Pollock acting as Chairman. There was a large attendance of the Committee and Guiders.

Miss J. W. Buckwell, in the course of the annual report, expressed thanks to Lady Pollock for taking the chair at such short notice. All the Guiders were warmly thanked for their work in the past year.

PROMINENT SWIMMER TO MARRY

Miss Clara Yeung Sau-chun, sister of the Chinese Olympic aquatic star, Miss Yeung Sau-king, who was recently married to Mr. B. L. Tao, and herself a swimmer of wide repute, is shortly to be married to Mr. John Kwee Hin-lam, of No. 8 Bayview Mansions, Causeway Bay. Notice of their forthcoming marriage was given yesterday at the Registry, Supreme Court.

Other notices were—
Mr. Wong Tak-keung, aircraft engineering student, of No. 173 Island Road, and Miss Wong Suk-ling, of No. 12 Wu Pak Street, Aberdeen; Mr. Woo Pak-luen, of the staff of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, and Miss Fan Kwok-lwan, of No. 15 Leighton Hill Road; and Gunner Bert Richard Weaver, Royal Artillery, and Miss Ivy Lee, of No. 16 Clarence Terrace.

BROTHERS WED

Two brothers were married yesterday morning at the Registry, Mr. Sung Chi-wing, of the Dairy Farm Company, and Mr. Sung Tze-cheong, of the Government Stores Department, were married respectively to Miss Leung Pui-fong, of No. 18 Percival Street, and Miss Lau Yan-chow.

Other weddings were between Mr. Lee Wai-chuen, student, of No. 58 Parkes Street, and Miss Chan Ho-tan, of No. 623 Reclamation Street, and Mr. Ho Ka-hoi, teacher of the Lingnan Middle School, Castle Peak, and Miss Chiu Yi-yuen, of No. 23 South Lane.

Mr. T. J. Gould, Deputy Registrar of Marriages, officiated at all four ceremonies.

MONEY LENDERS CREATE SCENE: DRINK PLEA

Gunga Singh, 38, a money lender, and Mehar Singh, 40, a private watchman, were fined $3 each, at the Kowloon Court yesterday, when they appeared before Mr. E. Huns-worth, on a charge of disorderly conduct at the bus terminus, Tsimshatsui, on Saturday night.

It was claimed that the two men, arriving by a No. 3 Bus at the terminus, proceeded to another bus when they began to quarrel at a window with their fists. The station master, Li Cheuk, 40, protested, whereupon, it is claimed, the first defendant had lunged at him with a stick.

A Chinese constable came on the scene and proceeded to lead the two men up to Tsimshatsui Police Station, when it was stated, the second defendant attempted to strike the constable.

An Indian constable who also arrived on the scene, prevented this, and the two men were subsequently brought up to the Police Station and charged. Both defendants pleaded they had been under the influence of drink.

THROWING OF ACID ALLEGED

CHARGE AGAINST CHINESE ACTOR

Preliminary hearing was commenced before Mr. B. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday against an unemployed actor, Wong Yan-kee, 33, who was charged with throwing acid at his wife, Ho Siu-fong, at No. 36, Sau Wah Fong on September 25.

Detective-Inspector W. N. Darkin prosecuted.

It was stated that the incident occurred during a quarrel when it was alleged the defendant threw a bottle of nitric acid on Ho's face.

Mr. P. H. Symons, Assistant Government Analyst, testified that he received a small bottle, which contained two drops of fluid with 40 per cent. of nitric and sulphuric acid, and some clothing with acid stains.

Dr. T. K. Lien, of the Queen Mary Hospital, said that he attended the complainant on September 28 and found that she was suffering from caustic burns on her face and forearms. He was discharged on October 14.

Ho Siu-fong, the complainant, said she married the defendant five years ago in Canton. Since then the defendant had been without work for about four years. She had spent about $5,000 of her savings. She came to Hongkong with her husband from Canton this year, and stayed with his mother.

The couple then went to Macao where she obtained employment as a waitress in an opium divan. Throughout the period she had been supporting the defendant.

ESCORT GIRL

When she came to Hongkong, witness worked as an escort girl, but had to discontinue on account of her husband's objection. During this time she had been having quarrels with him owing to jealousy.

On the day in question, the defendant scolded her for knowing certain people and, she alleged, took out a bottle and poured the contents on her face.

Cross-examined by the defendant, he agreed that her husband was holding the bottle in his hand and, in trying to prevent his hand from hitting her, the cork dropped off and the liquid streamed down to his hand, the defendant threw the bottle and hit her face and arm.

Witness also agreed that the bottle was kept in a shelf in the cockpit where many other bottles were kept and the particular one was placed near the end of the board.

Following further evidence, the hearing was adjourned until tomorrow afternoon.

WOMAN SOLD INTO PROSTITUTION

Two Chinese Sent To Prison

That they had taken a woman from Hongkong to Kwangchowwan for the purpose of selling her into prostitution was the charge preferred at the Kowloon Court yesterday, against two men, Chan Yai-kong, 20, and Ho Yuk-hon, 27, both of whom were convicted and sentenced to six months' each with hard labour.

RECEIVED OFFER

The complainant, Wong Kwai-ho, claimed that she had been acquainted for some time with the first defendant's wife, and also knew the second defendant.

About three months ago she received an offer from first complainant's wife that she should travel in a party of four to Kwangchowwan, where the two women would become waitresses.

On October 5, the party of four had left Hongkong, and on October 9 they arrived at Kwangchowwan, where they took a room in a hotel.

$345 PAID OVER

On the day of arrival, complainant claimed, the defendants were visited by a man whom she saw pass over to her companions $345 in Shanghai currency.

Believing that she had been hired as a waitress, she accompanied the visitor to his lodgings, where she was given to understand she had to receive customers. She refused, and after being kept seven days was sold to another man. On the following day she managed to escape, and made her way to Hongkong.

HIGH STANDARD OF CHINESE ART

Mr. Kwan Wai-nung's Exhibition

The exhibition held at the premises of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, under the auspices of In Yi Section of Yee Fung Benevolent Society, for the purpose of raising funds in aid of the expenses of running free schools, attracted a large attendance, which comprised His Excellency the Governor and other prominent residents. It is a pity that the exhibition was limited to three days.

Mr. Kwan Wai Nung, ex-head of the Artistic Department of the South China Morning Post and founder of the Asiatic Litho. Printing Press, has been successful in reconciling Chinese fine art with that of European.

In this connection it may be interesting to recall a picture of two girls presented by him to the Flood Relief Bazaar, 1908, which realized over $1,000.

40 YEARS' WORK

The pictures shown at the exhibition were not offered for sale, but represented a collection of 40 years' work, as a pioneer in adapting the Chinese art to that of European.

While benefiting by European science, Mr. Kwan retains the essence of Chinese art, strongly advocating the use of colours and paper of Chinese make, for, as he explains, they can show the ability and attainment of the artist in the best possible manner and, at the same time, the colours, once applied to the paper, will remain unchangeable for ever.

JUNK CAPTURED BY JAPANESE

MASTER HELD PRISONER

Returning to Hongkong yesterday after losing his junk and all its cargo and being kept a prisoner by the Japanese for over a month, Lam Sang-chun, 43-year-old master of junk P3014H related yesterday how his junk had been captured by a Japanese gunboat while sailing in Chinese waters off San Mei on Oct. 10.

A boarding party from the Japanese vessel took over all the cargo and towed the junk to Kit Shek where the crew were detained until last Tuesday when they were allowed to go. Sang-chun also told of two other junks which had been similarly treated the occupants of one of the junks having been machine-gunned by the Japanese before boarding the vessel.

ITALIAN NEUTRALITY

INDEPENDENT REPORTS of what went on in Italy during the fateful days of the height of the crisis and the outbreak of the war shed much new light on the causes and motives of the country's present neutrality.

IN THE MIDDLE OF AUGUST the Italo-German military alliance had just been concluded and the Axis appeared more solid than ever before. By the end of the month, Count Ciano, appalled by the inevitability of war resulting from Hitler's decision to march on Poland, swung over from the Axis camp towards the point of view held by Dino Grandi, an advocate of co-operation with Britain. Grandi, recalled from London, was given a post and a voice on the Council of Ministers.

General Graziani, one of the country's outstanding commanders, was placed in charge of the troops not on the French frontier but on the Brenner Pass. Starace, Farinacci and Alfieri, chief protagonists of the German alliance within the Fascist Party lost much of their influence. The voice of Gayda was hushed. Il Duce hinted at loopholes in the military arrangement with the Reich and assumed the role of last-minute peacemaker.

THE GENERAL MOBILISATION of the army was first ordered then rescinded. When the war broke out Italy was not only not a participant but she was not even mobilized. On September 4 the neutrality of the country was officially proclaimed, the Mediterranean was opened, and, within a few days, airplane motors were leaving Italy's factories to fill orders from France while Welsh coal was being unloaded in her ports.

OBSERVERS RECORD that during the month of August the country stood nearer to an anti-Fascist revolt than at any time since the March on Rome. All that was lacking was effective leadership. During the Axis honeymoon there had been a feeling that Italy was being sold down the river to Hitler, and the presence of thousands of arrogant Nazi officials, Gestapo bloodhounds and tight-fisted "Strength through Joy" tourists gave this feeling concrete corroboration. The entire population was suddenly resentful of the way in which Italy was being dragged to war in the rear of the German steamroller. Discontent found open expression. The announcement of neutrality, assuring the country of at least temporary peace led to an explosion of relief. The people of Italy had been shoved willy-nilly into the unpopular wars in Abyssinia and Spain. They had, and have, no stomach for the greater catastrophe.

WITH AN EYE to both external and internal dangers, the regime wavered precariously, and its uncertainty was reflected by the fact that, for the first time in many years, something like free speech was again heard in Italy. Homes and public places rang with spirited discussions of the international situation, and strong opinions were expressed.

WHEN MUSSOLINI FIXED HIS COURSE for the immediate future, this tendency was immediately suppressed. The over-vociferous found, as had always been the case under Fascism, that self-expression was the shortest way to

Internationally Known Artists Exhibiting At 50th Annual Club Show

Marvellous Technique Of Oils By Miss Irma Last

MISS ERNE FREELANDER'S WORK

INTERNATIONALLY WELL-KNOWN ARTISTS ARE EXHIBITING WORK which they have shown at big European art exhibitions, at this year's exhibition of the Hongkong Art Club, which opened at St. John's Cathedral Hall yesterday. The exhibition will end at 7 p.m. today.

Prominent among the exhibitors are Dr. Emma Borman (Mrs. Milch) and Miss Irma Last, both of whom have been lecturers in art at the University of Vienna.

Among Dr. Borman's coloured woodcuts and etchings are many that have been shown at European academies and shows. She is offering a small portfolio of these at very low prices, some being available from $2. These should make useful substitutes for Christmas cards.

Another distinguished exhibitor is Miss Erne Freeland. She has exhibited in Berlin and Milan, and lectured in Paris studios.

Mr. G. V. Smirnoff, from Harbin, Mrs. Truda Panet, wife of Lt.-Col. Panet, are among the several others who can claim international reputation, and Hongkong's art lovers are assured of an exhibition that is both refreshing and interesting in the local Art Club's 50th annual show.

Mrs. Alfred Macfadyen and the Hon. Secretary, Mrs. C. B. Brown, both well-known personalities in Hongkong art circles, are once again responsible for organising details, and deserve commendation for the painstaking and efficient manner in which they have been carried out.

Other exhibitors are already well-known to the Hongkong art public and need no introduction. Two well-known Chinese exhibitors who are prominent by their absence this year are Miss Ann Hsi and Mr. Willie Chiang. It is believed they are away from the Colony.

CHINESE ARTISTS

Another feature of interest in this year's exhibition is that there are no less than six internationally known Chinese artists are contributing. Well-known to Hongkong art lovers, they are G. T. Chan, K. K. Lim, Z. Z. Lee, Peter Leong, Ng Ko-hung and Lee Byng.

The exhibition comprises all types of artists work including oil and water paintings, etchings, woodcuts, charcoal drawings and sculptures.

CLEVER CARTOON

"View of Repulse" Bay by Miss Isabel Balcian and "Trees in Kennedy Road" by Mrs. C. C. D. Brown are specially arresting for their clear blending of colour, while a cartoon entitled "Wanchai" by George Arnold is humorous and clever.

Miss Maude Franks' "The Wreck" is telling in a simple and clear way, while Miss Erne Freeland's studies from life are perfect reproductions of expression.

jail. But penalties were imposed not only upon anti-Fascists. The tension within the ruling party and the rising influence of the army was reflected in the new regulation which, once and for all, subjected the Fascist militia to military control and equalised its pay with that of the regular forces. In Abyssinia and Spain, blackshirts and soldiers had had as little as possible to do with each other and had fought in separate formations. Until three weeks ago, a Blackshirt received 8 lire a day—a soldier only 40 centesimi. Now all this is over, and the remuneration of the one has been slashed, and of the other raised, to the uniform figure of 1 lire daily. Badoglio has become a figure almost as powerful as Il Duce.

WHAT TREND THE NEUTRALITY OF ITALY WILL ASSUME in the future, it is still too early to say. Like Japan, the country stands outside the war to profit and to speculate. The Duce's dream of the new Roman Imperium continues to live but while the conflict of stronger powers holds the centre of the stage, prudence will take the place of heroics. The risks of any other course are much too great.

JUDICIAL PROCEDURE ARGUED

Judgment For Plaintiff

A point of judicial procedure was brought up at the Summary Court yesterday when, in the adjourned hearing of a claim of $125 and costs for salary introduced by Miss Clara Davidovich, of No. 19 Gap Road, against Chiffon's, Ltd., ladies' dressmakers, Mdm. J. Masseboeuff, as managing director, appeared for the defendant firm instead of a solicitor.

The claim, which was for one month's salary in lieu of notice, was heard by Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell.

Mdm. Masseboeuff produced a letter from a local firm of solicitors which advised her that it was not necessary, in law, for a legal representative to appear in Court for the firm. She further stated that she did not want to go to the expense of engaging a solicitor. She stated that she was the only shareholder in the defendant company.

NO GROUND

Mr. J. M. D'Almada Remedios, for the plaintiff, submitted that there was no ground whatever for such practice.

After half-an-hour had been spent by the Court in pursuing the issue, Mr. G. S. Ford made his appearance and told his Lordship that he would act on behalf of the defendant company.

He submitted that it was only a practice, and there was nothing in law to provide for it, that a company be represented by a solicitor. The company, he said, was a legal entity and could not appear.

His Lordship held that the company must be properly represented, and an adjournment of ten minutes was made for Mr. Ford to receive his instructions.

MONTH'S NOTICE

On resumption, Mr. Remedios put his client in the box. She said that she had been employed by Chiffon's, Ltd., as a dressmaker for ten months, at $125 per month. On August 31, she sent in a letter of resignation giving one month's notice, and on receipt of this Mdm. Masseboeuff there and then told her that she need not return. She understood that she was dismissed from then onwards, and when she applied for her pay she was only

GENERALISSIMO REVIEWS SITUATION IN SPEECH AT 6TH PLENARY SESSION

GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK gave a comprehensive review of China's military and political situation vis-a-vis Japan during the past nine months in his opening address on November 12 at the Sixth Plenary Session of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang, of which he is the Tsungtsai, or director-general. Following is a full English translation of his speech:

Today on the occasion of our Tsungli's (the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen) birthday, we are meeting here for the sixth plenary session of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang. Since the fifth plenary session, nine months have elapsed. During this period, the enemy, besides military drives, has intensified his political and economic offensives, while the traitors have become bolder and more thorough-going in their conspiracies against their own country. The past nine months have also witnessed changes and realignments in the international situation.

In September, war actually broke out in Europe, and it is still too early to predict its future development or final outcome. The minds of all people in the world are now being harassed by anxieties for the protection of their national security and the restoration of world peace. Therefore, the last nine months may be called a period of kaleidoscopic vicissitudes.

Meanwhile, as we are engaged in a war of resistance and as we have a fixed national policy, it follows that our stand is a clear-cut one, and our ways of coping with the new state of affairs are very much simplified. We meet changes with constancy. Ours is a matter of concentrating our thought and strength and pitting them against our sole enemy—the aggressor, Japan. Our task is admittedly difficult, yet in our hearts reigns calmness.

FATE OF COUNTRY:

If we had not risen in armed resistance on July 7, 1937, and then suddenly there had come a great change of world-wide ramifications in Europe, the fate of our country would have been imperilled and it would have been difficult indeed for us to face the situation.

For this reason, we should feel all the more grateful to the heroic souls of those soldiers and civilians who during the past two years and four months have nobly laid down their lives in the hard-fought struggle.

In the course of this plenary session, it is only natural for us to study the present situation, to review our past activities and to decide upon programmes for the future. Meanwhile, we must be unanimously aware of the fact that our Party's responsibility is increasing in weight and size as time goes on, that we have really come to the turning point where final success or failure will be determined and that we must go on leading the rest of the nation until we have fulfilled our great mission of securing independence and freedom for our country, of putting the Three People's Principles into practice and of contributing our share toward a lasting world peace.

PARAMOUNT IMPORTANCE:

However, it is of primary importance for all our comrades to appreciate the paramount importance of what I had said at the fifth

She wrote to the defendants on two occasions subsequently, but her request for a month's salary in lieu of notice was ignored.

NOT NECESSARY

Mdm. Masseboeuff, in evidence, said that after receiving plaintiff's letter she told plaintiff it was not necessary for her to remain till the end of September if it suited her to leave right away. As plaintiff did not subsequently return to work she took it that plaintiff had availed herself of release from her obligation to serve the month.

After Mrs. A. Silva, cashier of Chiffon's, had given evidence, His Lordship gave judgment for plaintiff with costs.

Finally, we must be aware of the great truth that China's success or failure in her war of resistance is inseparably related to the world's security or peril, well-being or ruin.

I need not begin with an account of the military and political events of the past nine months, as these will be fully covered by separate reports. At the inauguration of our plenary session today, I wish to call your attention to a few of my previous remarks. At the fifth plenary session we made it clear that "so long as our nation refuses to be coerced or deceived but carries on, fighting to the finish, our enemy's defeat is a foregone conclusion." Then, in my reports before the third and fourth sessions of the People's Political Council, I said that the enemy is facing a steady decrease in manpower and his difficulties in military operations will increase with every day, while "our present military strength, as compared with that of pre-war days, has been more than doubled."

This has been borne out by the campaigns in south Shansi and north Hupeh in the last few months, and particularly by the recent battle in north Hunan.

3 KILLED, 6 INJURED IN QUEEN'S ROAD FIRE

Trapped by fire which broke out on the ground floor of No. 466, Queen's Road West, premises of the Kwong Li Loong Grocery, at 1.20 yesterday morning three persons were killed and six badly injured when they made a desperate attempt to escape by jumping from the first and second floor verandahs.

The flames, fanned by a strong wind, spread with great rapidity to the staircase, cutting off the only means of escape.

The occupants were asleep when one of the folk discovered the raging inferno and raised the alarm.

40 TRAPPED

No less than 40 people, mostly women and children, were trapped on the first and second floors, and they resolved to jump. One woman was killed instantaneously, while two others died on their way to the Queen Mary Hospital.

Two folk were badly burned, whilst the body of another was extricated from the debris. Several children were reported missing and it is feared that they perished in the conflagration.

Five appliances and the Emergency Unit were despatched to the scene and the fire was brought under control by 2.30 a.m. The building was completely gutted and the first floor of the adjoining building was also damaged.

On a charge of armed robbery at No. 113, Kilang Street, on November 6, two men, Wai Ting, 30, and Ho Hung, 19, both unemployed, were committed by Mr. Q. A. Macfadyen at Kowloon Court yesterday to the next Criminal Sessions.

"DEFEAT OF AGGRESSIVE AND BULLYING MENTALITY AND ESTABLISHMENT OF A NEW EUROPE OF GOODWILL AND MUTUAL TOLERANCE" WILL BE BRITAIN'S WAR AIMS

Eloquent Broadcast By Prime Minister

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — Explaining Britain's war and peace aims in a broadcast address to the Empire yesterday, at 9.15 p.m. Britain's Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, said it was not merely the defeat of the enemy's military forces which they aimed at, the defeat of the aggressive and bullying mentality which had sought to dominate other peoples by force.

"If the German people can be convinced that that spirit is as bad for themselves as for the rest of the world, they would abandon it," said Mr. Chamberlain. "And if we could secure that they did abandon it without bloodshed, so much the better, but abandoned it must be. That is our war aim and we shall persevere in this struggle until we have attained it."

After referring to his broadcast on Sept. 3, the Premier said that after twelve weeks of war he was speaking again happily, with his health and strength unimpaired and with full confidence of our ultimate victory. He assured his hearers that they should not follow Germany's example of concealing their own losses and inventing non-existent enemy losses and added: "We shall tell you frankly what is happening, even when the truth is unpleasant, and we shall never refrain from publishing news, except when it will be helpful to the enemy."

NOT NAZI HUMANITY
Hitherto the war has been carried on in a way very different from what was expected. We need not attribute the reluctance of the Germans to begin a great land offensive or to attempt a series of aerial mass attacks on Britain to their humanity. We have had plenty of evidence that no considerations of humanity have deterred them from any form of warfare they thought advantageous.

"They must, therefore, have come to the conclusion that at present they would lose more than they would gain by such attacks and preferred to use methods which they thought could be employed without serious loss to themselves."

"The latest of these methods was the sowing of a new kind of mine indiscriminately in our home waters, regardless of international agreements to which the Germans subscribed or to the fact that they are daily blowing up neutral ships as well as British, thereby drowning and mutilating the citizens of countries with whom they are not warring."

NO FEARS
"They hoped by these barbarous weapons to cut off our supplies from overseas and to squeeze or starve us into submission."

"You need have no fear that this attempt will succeed. We know the secrets of the magnetic mine and we shall soon master the magnetic mine as we have already mastered their U-Boat. In the meantime, despite some losses, our convoys are still moving steadily in and out of our ports and will continue to do so, thanks to the courage and skill of the men of our Merchant Navy and the warships escorting them."

DEFENCE OF FREEDOM
Mr. Chamberlain thanked the Empire peoples for their support so freely given and swiftly given and said: "We entered the war to defend freedom and establish peace—two vital principles in our Empire—and the Empire's unity today gave us moral as well as material strength to win them."

Referring to the hardships and inconveniences due to the necessity of providing against aerial attacks the Prime Minister emphasised that they could not rashly dispense with safeguards, but the Government would certainly relay them whenever they felt they could do so without any undue risk to public safety.

ART OF WAR
Some of them might sometimes wonder why they were not attacking the enemy more vigorously. The art of war consisted in bringing the greatest possible force to bear in the right place and time and the place and time would be decided by those responsible for the strategy of the Allies.

Meanwhile, they had time on their side and every week there were intensified pressure of the Allies' blockade on Germany, which was slowly but surely depriving her of the materials essential to a successful prosecution of modern war, which she could not produce within her own borders, while the Allies had at their disposal unlimited resources in men and materials.

With such advantages they must win finally and the only question was how long it would take them to achieve that purpose.

WAR AIMS
The Prime Minister said that their war aim was to defeat the enemy, not merely the enemy's military forces, but the aggressive and bullying mentality which had sought continually to dominate other peoples by force, and which found a brutal satisfaction in the persecution and torture of inoffensive citizens and in the name of the interests of the state justified the repudiation of their own pledged word whenever it was found to be convenient.

If the German people could be convinced that that spirit was as bad for themselves as for the rest of the world, they would abandon it. "If we could secure that they did abandon it without bloodshed, so much the better, but abandoned it must be. That is our war aim and we shall persevere in this struggle until we have attained it," said Mr. Chamberlain.

A NEW EUROPE
Dealing with peace aims, Mr. Chamberlain said that their desire was to establish a new Europe, not in the sense of re-drawing the map according to the ideas of victors, but a Europe with a new spirit in which the nations of Europe would approach difficulties with good-will and mutual tolerance.

FLOW OF TRADE
In such a Europe the fear of aggression would have ceased to exist and such adjustments of boundaries as would be necessary would be thrashed out between neighbours sitting on equal terms round a table with the help of disinterested third parties if it was so desired.

In such a Europe it would be recognised that there could be no lasting peace unless there was a full and constant flow of trade between the nations concerned and each country would have the right to choose its own form of internal government so long as it did not pursue an external policy injurious to its neighbours and armaments would be gradually dropped as an useless expense except so far as they were needed for the preservation of internal law and order.

This would take many years and some machinery would be needed capable of guiding the development of the new Europe in the right direction. He hoped that a Germany, animated by this new spirit, might be among the nations which would participate in its operation.

JAPANESE PREMIER CREATES RECORD

TOKYO, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — General Abe, Japanese Prime Minister, has created a record, that of being the country's first Premier to travel by air. He achieved this distinction by flying to Osaka on a week-end visit, returning to Tokyo by plane in the afternoon.

"FRIENDLY ADVICE" TO FINLAND FROM GERMANY

ON SOVIET DEMANDS

MOSCOW PAPER'S CRITICISM

HELSINKI, NOV. 27 (REUTER) — GERMANY HAS GIVEN FINLAND "FRIENDLY ADVICE" TO ENDEAVOUR TO REACH A SETTLEMENT WITH THE SOVIET, IN VIEW OF POSSIBLE SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES IF AGREEMENT IS NOT REACHED, ACCORDING TO REPORTS FROM BERLIN.

According to Stockholm reports it is thought there that the Soviet is likely to adopt diplomatic measures this week, aimed at securing a definite result on the questions at issue.

PRAYDA CRITICISM
MOSCOW, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — Under the heading "A Buffoon is Holding Prime Minister's Post," the Pravda Criticises M. Cajander, Finland's Premier, declaring that he belongs to the school of Moschicki and Beck.

The paper adds: "Let him find out how those Polish buffoons, who have lost their positions forever, feel now."

The Pravda further declares that Finland is being drawn by provocateurs into a foul and dangerous game and adds: "It is to be hoped that the Finnish people will not allow puppets like M. Cajander to continue steering Finland along the fatal course of the Beck and Moschicki."

SOVIET PLANES SHOT DOWN
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 27 (Reuter's Special War Service) — Finnish anti-aircraft guns are reported to have brought down several Soviet planes reconnoitring over Karelia, according to the Helsinki correspondent of the newspaper Politiken.

The correspondent adds that Soviet aircraft are making daily flights over this territory.

KWANGSI DETERMINATION: BIG BATTLE DEVELOPING IN VICINITY OF NANNING

KWEILIN, Nov. 27 (Central) — The Kwangsi Provisional People's Political Council despatched a stirring circular telegram yesterday to all branch people's assemblies throughout the province telling them that alien forces are now on Kwangsi land.

The telegram says that now is the time for all Kwangsi people to take up arms against the enemy and to mobilize all their resources against foreign aggression.

"Every person in Kwangsi should make it his sacred duty to see that Kwangsi grains shall not be made Japanese food, or Kwangsi waters Japanese drink, or Kwangsi houses Japanese shelter, or Kwangsi roads Japanese thoroughfares, the telegram declares.

Amidst the rivers and mountains of Kwangsi, victories greater than that on the plains of North Hunan shall be scored, the circular says.

BIG FIRES IN NANNING
CHUNGKING, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — Big fires are now raging in Nanning city following the most

HOW TO DO IT? NIPPON'S FAILURE TO END RUSSIAN AID FOR CHINA: A "MOST URGENT QUESTION", SAYS PRO-AXIS JAPANESE ENVOY

TOKYO, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — "The most urgent question facing Japan is how to adjust relations with the Soviet and how to make the Soviet Union and their aid to the Chiang Kai-shek regime," declares the pro-Axis Mr. Toshio Shiratori, who recently returned to Tokyo from Rome, where he was Japanese Ambassador, in an article given prominence in the Hochi Shimbun today.

Mr. Shiratori continues: "The very fact that Britain and the United States would dislike to see any Japan-Soviet rapprochement is the very reason why Japan should hurry and conclude an agreement with Moscow."

"What is not approved by people who are opposed to Japan at every turn since the outbreak of the China incident is in the interests of Japan."

WISHFUL THINKING
"Japan," says Mr. Shiratori, "should reject the opinion of those

Successful R.A.F. Flight Over Germany

REDUCED ACTIVITY ON FRONT

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — It was officially announced that the R.A.F. again made a successful flight over North West Germany yesterday, including Wilhelmshaven and Relligoland. Heavy anti-aircraft fire was encountered at several points.

WAR COMMUNIQUE
PARIS, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — A War Communique states that patrols were active during the night in the Vosges region.

A later communique says "there was reduced activity by units in contact and artillery."

COLD SPELL IN SHANGHAI: MANY PERISH

SHANGHAI, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — Several score of the city's destitutes perished from exposure and scores of others were removed to hospital as the result of the bitter cold which stripped the city over the weekend.

The present cold spell, it is believed, is likely to continue for another day.

All day long yesterday local benevolent societies were very busy removing dead bodies from the streets, ministering first aid and relieving shelter seekers.

The Shanghai Benevolent Society alone reported at noon yesterday that some thirty corpses had been picked up in the Central District.

Nazi Claims To Further Successes

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — The Admiralty officially announces that H.M.S. Rawalpindi (16,697 tons), (formerly the P. and O. liner) now an armed cruiser, has been sunk.

Complete mystery surrounds the sinking and the Admiralty issued an appeal to the Press to avoid speculation for the time being.

The casualty toll is stated to be one killed and fifteen missing.

The Admiralty statement is extremely brief, giving the barest details, and concluding: "Further information regarding the loss must be withheld for the present."

It is understood that the Rawalpindi had about 300 officers and men on board.

Another message from London states that, slightly damaged forward, the P. and O. liner Sussex arrived at a British port escorted by tugs. She struck a German mine.

severe Japanese aerial and artillery bombardment. Telephone and telegraph communication between Nanning and Luichow have been interrupted as all telephone and telegraph wires have been damaged by the bombardment.

The present Kwangsi battle will test the truth of the statement by General Chin Cheng who, in describing the fighting in the North Hunan front, stated that "forces of Chinese farmers have defeated the Japanese tanks," meaning the destruction of highways and roads by Chinese peasants has prevented the use of tanks by the Japanese.

Mine-Laying By Germans A Confession Of Failure Of U-Boat Campaign

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter) — Reviewing the war at sea, the B.B.C. Naval Observer said that all the German mines had been laid along the shipping routes around the British coast. The sinking of British and neutral shipping by this illegal method is going to have a great effect on the war as a whole and not quite in the way the Germans intended.

War at sea is a complicated business. It is not confined to straight naval battles, but is a contest to strangle seaborne trade.

This method of laying mines is against international law, not to mention all considerations of humanity, but we are pretty used to the Nazis breaking international law and will take reprisals by the stopping of German exports.

The laying of mines is a confession of the weakness that the U-Boat campaign has not been as effective as it was hoped and that the U-Boats have been frightened far out into the Atlantic, where they can only attack a few lone

And so the Nazis have turned to magnetic mines, which are not new and, in fact, were used in the last war. The term "Magnetic Mines" does not mean mines which move towards ships like chickens when you come out with a handful of corn. They are the same as any other mines, except they are magnetically set forth. Steel ships form magnets which will set these mines off.

ANGLO-FRENCH
CO-OPERATION

PARIS, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—It is officially stressed that M. Bonnet, who had been appointed President of the Franco-British Co-ordination Committee, is now an Allied and not a French official.

His appointment is the first of its kind, and it is pointed out that the Allied scheme for economic co-operation is already being practically implemented, which, it is declared, will be a stinging reply to German propaganda alleging that Allied co-operation was only window-dressing.

The appointment of the Frenchman is warmly welcomed as further proof of the unreserved confidence existing between the Allies.
It is described as typically British fair-play to adopt a French chairman because the Committee will function in London.

TREATMENT OF GERMAN
NATIONALS IN GERMANY

THE FOLLOWING IS AN EXTRACT TAKEN FROM A WHITE PAPER CONCERNING THE TREATMENT OF GERMAN NATION-ALS IN GERMANY (1938-39).

It is taken from a letter addressed by "A German Mother, who is one mind with very many Christian parents," to Sir Neville Henderson, then British Ambassador in Berlin, for transmission to Lord Halifax.

1. I appeal to a foreign Power for help in a matter which is the private concern of the German people.

2. I write without mentioning my name.

Anonymous letters should be rights be assigned to the wastepaper basket, but since you are aware of the state of affairs in Germany as regards the censorship of letters, moral compulsion, concentration camps, and so on, I hope that you will lend a willing ear to this appeal in spite of its anonymity.

OBJECT OF PETITION

The object of my petition is that England, the country which is still the strongest in Europe, and which is trying to preserve its Christian character, will make all future negotiations with Germany conditional upon the cessation of hostility towards Christianity in Germany.

The first condition upon which the end of this conflict depends would be the release of our imprisoned pastors, especially the pastor Martin Niemöller, whose lot must be a source of the greatest bitterness to all fair-minded people.

ALIENATION OF YOUTH

But almost more important still, it seems to me, is the demand that the systematic alienation of our youth from Christ shall be stopped.

We parents must surrender our 10-year-old children to the control of the Hitler Youth, the League of German Girls, and later on the Labour Service. Our exceptionally gifted boys must attend the Adolf Hitler Schools and afterwards pass on to the National Socialist Schools of Political Training ("Ordensbur-gen"), there to be prepared for future leadership in the State and the party.

LONDON'S LAST
BROUGHAM
DRIVER SCORNS
CARS

Sixty-three-year-old Fred Ball, of Burder-road, N. has been driving London for 45 years, yet he "doesn't give two boots" for the petrol ration. He is London's last remaining follower of an old-time profession. He drives a traveller's brougham.

"I started driving a coach when I was eighteen," he said. "I worked for Tilling's, the transport company, and I remember the day when they owned more than 8000 horses. Now they have only about 130."

He spoke of the time when Tilling's obtained the contracts for all the horse buses, horse trams, fire engines and other vehicles that required horses to pull them.

"I drove a horse tram for six years," he said, "but I liked coaches better, and I have been on them ever since."

Time was when all commercial travellers used the horse drawn broughams. To-day Fred's employer is the only one left in this section of the transport business.

HAD COACH 11 YEARS

"I have had this coach for 11 years," Fred declared, "and I would not buy a car for anything."

"A horse may not be as fast, but I am not out for speed. A horse never goes wrong. It can turn round in narrow streets with more ease, and on top of that, I get privileges with my coach that I could never get with a motorcar."

"For instance, the police never interfered with us no matter how long we are parked in a back street."

Sally, the mare that pulls the brougham, is 15 years old. "But she is in the pink of condition," Fred proudly said. "I groom her myself."

He brushed a speck of dust off his coachman's great-coat and straightened his shiny hat. He gets a new hat every year, and throws
the old one away—Standard.

MONEY PREFERRED TO
SOCKS FOR SOLDIERS

Australian women will do less war knitting during this war than in 1914-18. This was indicated by the Lord Mayor (Mr.
Coles) at a conversation in the Centenary Hall given by the Loyal Orange Institution to the Governor and Lady Dugan.

Mr. Coles, who is treasurer of the Victorian division of the Australian Comforts Fund, said money rather than gifts of goods would be needed.

The money would be useful for the purchase of machine-made socks, he said. Although the army would still need hand-knitted socks, for example, the Air Force did not want this type. The thirteen machine-made socks would be more suitable for its needs.

In addition to welcoming Sir Winston and Lady Dugan, the gathering also launched a combined lodge comforts fund.

The Governor was presented with an address of welcome by the grand master (Mr. J. H. Morris).

In reply he said the welcome indicated that Victoria and other States were determined to help win the war for the Empire. Christians and all that stood for good in the world.

Interests Of Overseas
Chinese
SHUIKWAN, Nov. 27 (Int'l)—
For the benefit of overseas Chinese from Kwangtung, a special section to look after their interest is added to the Secretariat of the Kwangtung Provincial Government. A branch section is established in a certain town on the East River.

Overseas Chinese in Malaya,
Dutch Indies, Burma India, Siam,
Hawaii and elsewhere may secure information on conditions in Kwangtung, and trade enquiries will be given attention.

The Air Ministry announced that the Prime Minister and Mrs.
Chamberlain on Friday afternoon visited the headquarters of the Fighter Command of the Royal Air Force.—(BWS)

BUSINESS MAN'S £5000 CHEQUE FOR DEFENCE

Gifts ranging from a cheque for £5000 to a few uncanceled postage stamps—many of them anonymous—are pouring in to the Australian Defence Department from citizens anxious to do an extra bit towards winning the war.

The Minister for Defence (Mr. Street) said he wished gratefully to acknowledge the generosity of the givers, many of whom were unable to do physical service.

The £5000 was received from a business man who asked that his name be not disclosed.

Sir Thomas Buckland, who some time ago provided £10,887 as cost of an Avro Anson bomber, has sent a cheque for £200, the cost of 10 anti-submarine bombs.

Other typical cases are: A New South Wales State officer, an ex-Digger who cannot enlist for this war, has offered 5 per cent. of his salary, enclosing £3, as a first instalment. He has offered to increase this to 10 per cent.

The wife of a clergyman in an inland centre gave her greatest personal treasure—a souvenir sovereign—saying that possibly others with gold pieces similarly set aside might be inspired to follow her lead.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT
Many other gifts of money have been received, including cheques for £20 and £55/5.

"This is heartening evidence of the temper of the Australian people," commented Mr. Street. "It demonstrates the spirit which makes the three arms of the fighting services the magnificent weapons they are."

Shorn wool production in Canada for 1939 is estimated at 13,615,000 pounds compared with 13,386,000 pounds in 1938.

PLANES FOR "SPECIAL DUTIES"

"Communications" aircraft, set aside for the use of high personages and officers of the fighting forces, play an important part to-day in the mechanics of government. Monarchs, dictators and business executives employ to an increasing extent aircraft for urgent journeys.

The "communications" aeroplane is a specially equipped and furnished version of an existing military or civil aircraft, and the United Kingdom aircraft industry produces a wealth of aeroplanes which can be adapted or are already available as they stand for special communication duties.

An idea of the increasing value of "communications" aircraft may be gained from a survey of some of the journeys undertaken before war began. For example, the Secretary of State for War, Mr. Hore-Bellisha, made a quick visit to Malta and back in an R.A.F. "communications" aircraft, and the Under-Secretary of State for Air, Captain H. H. Balfour, made a 12,000-mile lightning tour of R.A.F. units in Egypt, Sudan, Kenya, Palestine and Malta in less than a month.

Recently, too, the Government of India acquired two twin-engine low-wing monoplanes for the personal use of the Viceroy; a similar type of aircraft of a different make was owned by the late King Ghazi of Iraq, and another of these planes has been delivered to the Civil Air Board of Australia for special duties.

MOBILISING MONEY

Planned control of wartime capital investment and financial resources in the various States will be announced soon.

The Australian Prime Minister (Mr. Menzies) said he had had several conferences on the proposals with the Assistant Treasurer (Mr. Spender) and the Treasury in recent weeks.

An expert board probably will be appointed to ensure that no projects are undertaken that would involve undue drain on the investment market, unless of national emergency, also that no private financial operations conflict with the free subscription of defence loans.

TRIBUTE TO WORK OF I.L.O.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (Reuter)—President Roosevelt has sent Geneva a striking tribute to the work of the International Labour Office.

The Labour Conference in Havana, he says, is a significant example of the efficiency of the International Labour Office in serving mankind, regardless of frontiers and battlefields.

RE-ADJUSTMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE MACHINERY

CHUNGKING, Nov. 27 (Central)—The Central News has learned from authoritative sources that re-adjustment of the administrative machinery will be discussed by the standing committee of the Central Executive Committee which is meeting next week.

General principles for the re-adjustment were laid down by the Sixth Plenary Session of the Central Executive Committee.

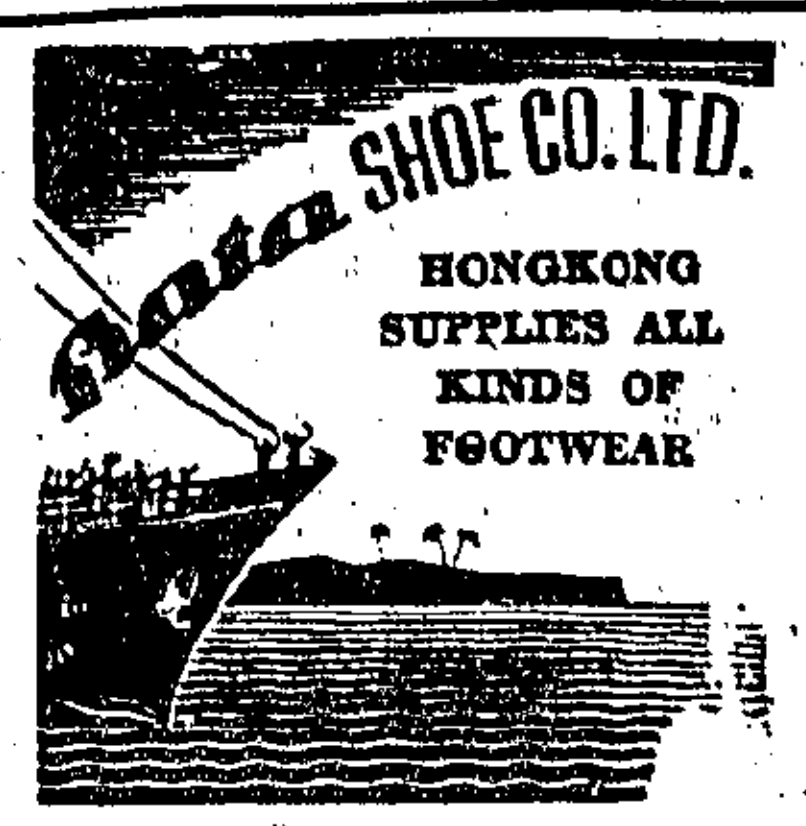

It is believed in official circles that there will be no great change in the existing personnel.

The output of linseed oil by Canadian plants in 1938 amounted to 3,504,389 gallons valued at $2,536,455. Of the 1,579,190 bushels of flaxseed used in the production of linseed oil, 836,397 bushels were of foreign origin, mainly from Argentina, and 742,793 bushels were produced domestically. In addition to linseed oil, the industry produced 2,218 tons of linseed oilcake, 26,365 tons of linseed oilcake meal, and 168 tons of linseed meal.

MOTORING ON GAS

BRITAIN SETTING UP FILLING STATIONS

The enterprise of British gas-fuel experts and motor engineers is resulting in the establishment of thousands of gas filling stations for petrol-rationalized motorists throughout Great Britain. The stations will supply compressed gas which is claimed to give the same results as petrol at far less cost.

The unsightly balloons on the roofs of cars, so familiar in the last war, are now obsolete as a method of carrying the fuel.

Motorists will get their gas compressed in cylinders which can be carried on luggage racks or trailers.

Important centres will be served by huge compressor stations distributing gas under a pressure of 5,000 pounds to the square inch.

"A garage can equip itself as a filling station for about £200," said an official of the United Kingdom Gas Corporation. "Some garages are already equipped, and soon there will be thousands."

"We have four different systems of converting any kind of petrol or diesel oil vehicle to gas. There will be no need for rationing, as supplies are ample. This should help the Exchequer" by keeping cars on the road, and therefore paying car tax.

"In some districts gas giving a performance equal to one gallon of petrol will cost only 6d., and in no district is it likely to cost more than one shilling and twopence."

Zinc production in Canada established a new high monthly record in July, when the output amounted to 53,307,875 pounds compared with 28,387,785 pounds in July of last year.

Exports of planks and boards from Canada in August amounted to 248,455,000 feet valued at $5,633,760 compared with 147,205,000 feet valued at $3,346,821 in the corresponding month last year.

Canada's pulp and paper industry has headed the list of manufacturing industries in net value of production since 1920, and in wage and salary distribution since 1922.

Two trial shipments of Canadian frozen strawberries sent earlier in the year to Australia have met with such excellent demand at Sydney that another shipment, amounting to 60 tons, was sent, and likewise sold well, according to cabled advice. This is the first time Canadian strawberries have been seen on the Australian market and the favourable reception given indicates the possibility that a steady trade in this delicacy may be developed.

New York, Nov. 25.

SINGAPORE RUBBER	Nov. 24	Nov. 25	Change

JAN/MARCH	38-3/4	39-1/8	up 3/8
APR/JUNE	38-1/2	37	up 1/2

The market was uncertain.

COTTON: There was some December liquidation, while buyers were less aggressive. Hedging and foreign selling of later positions were additional factors for easiness, but Trade support on the scale down was evident.

RUBBER: December liquidation was readily absorbed and there is some evidence of continued dealer and factory support.

WHEAT: No indication of moisture in the drought sections continues to attract attention and is causing the steadiness of the market. There is a better Trade demand for cash.

CORN: A better seeding is reported. The Trade is hopeful of a good export demand. Country interests are holding for advances and the tendency is moderately bullish.

HIDES: The Trade absorbed the recent heavy sales of Actuals and the technical position of Futures has shown much improvement. We would favour purchase during period of December liquidation.

NEW YORK STOCKS: Previous close, 148.47. Today's close, 148.64; Change, up .17.

"Ship" Sunk On Dry Land

An enemy broadcast has claimed that H.M.S. Kestrel has been sunk. This is the biggest joke of the war, since the Kestrel is actually the official name of the Fleet Air Arm training establishment at Worthy Down, Hampshire.

This should encourage the Germans to carry on with the verbal destruction of a few more ships of a similar character, such as the Boscawen, which is the shore base at Portland; the Buzzard, otherwise the R.N. Air Station at Lympne; the Daedalus, R.N. Air Station at Lee-on-Solent; or the Merlin, R.N. Air Station at Donibristle.

An especially tempting choice would be H.M.S. Impregnable, whose name could hardly fail to attract the imagination of the German broadcasters. This happens to be a boys' training establishment on dry land at St. Budeaux, near Devonport.—Daily Telegraph.

Liner Requisitioned By Government

One of the liners of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Co. has been requisitioned by the British Government for a short tour of duty.

The steamer, which will arrive in Hongkong in a few days, will be turned over to the Government authorities.

Methodist Minister Tells Of Life And Experiences In South - West China

The Anniversary Supper of the English Methodist Church, Wanchai, was held last night at the Sailors' and Soldiers' Home, there being about 50 people present. Following the supper, a lecture was given by the Rev. J. Ernest Sandbach, the subject of which was "Life and Experiences in South-west China."

Recalling his boyhood, the speaker remarked he was brought up in Yunnan, and one of his earliest and most pleasant recollections was his first reading of Sam Pollard's "Tight Corners in China," a book he managed to obtain when he "swapped" prizes with another boy at Sunday School.

When he came out to China, the speaker continued, he followed the trail set earlier by Sam Pollard, Frank Dymond and other teachers of the Methodist Mission in the province, except that where the old approach to the province was by way of the Yangtze River and the north, the new route to the "Roof of the World" was by the Tongking-Yunnan Railway.

In recalling his experience in travel along that route, Mr. Sandbach said he would advise others, should they have the opportunity, to experience the picturesque journey through a wild country where fever had claimed thousands of lives of the coolies who had built the line.

PRIMITIVE TRAVEL

He recounted also experiences of more primitive travel, of brigands and bodyguards, and of inns where insects from outside the doors and windows competed with insects from within the walls.

There were football games in that part of the world he experienced also, Mr. Sandbach said, where every man on the side carried a revolver, and a cry to shoot at goal could easily be misinterpreted.

There were the aborigines, the warlike No-su tribesmen, to whom the other settlers were serfs, but who had themselves been driven to the mountain ranges on the Szechuan border, where the Black No-su became overlords, with fortresses built on the hilltops, and the White No-su the tenants, forming two distinct castes.

FIRST DESIRE

The first desire of a No-su tribesman, the speaker said, was a horse and rifle. They were excellent horsemen and fierce fighters, carrying on feuds the very origins of which were forgotten, but they made friends easily, and were reliable in friendship. The present governor of the province was a No-su, and so was one of the Generals who covered himself with glory at Talerchwang.

There were also the Flowery Miao, 50,000 of them, and the Black Miao and the River Miao, to whom the Mission was bringing the word of God. These people were gentle in nature, friendly in the extreme, keen hunters, and very clever with the long-bow. They greeted one another by rubbing shoulders. They were great story-tellers, and were possessed of a wealth of folk-lore.

These were the men, Mr. Sandbach concluded, to whom the Mission in Yunnan was bringing the Christian faith, and they were responding in tens and hundreds, and a 1,000 Miao tribesmen have been known to attend service at Chiao-tong.

Basic Plan Outlined

should be submitted for scrutiny and record.

"The period of one month has been taken as the basis for calculating requirements. It has occurred to me that, situated as we are, 9,000 miles away from the source of supplies, this period may be too short, and I have authority to fix a longer quota if that should be necessary."

All orders, said Mr. Carlie, must be submitted in triplicate. After endorsement, one copy will be returned to the importer for forwarding to his supplier in the United Kingdom. A second copy will be sent to the Export Licensing Department in London, and the third will be kept on file by the Controller of Food here.

REASONABLE TIME

A reasonable time will be fixed wherein "exportation must" take place from England, and arrangements will be made, if necessary, and at the importer's expense, to telegraph approval and endorsement of orders.

"Even if it is not possible to endorse an order probably because it is in excess of the approved monthly requirements, it does not follow that the order will not be fulfilled in London if the situation when the order reaches the United Kingdom happens to be favourable. The order, however, will not receive any priority," said Mr. Carlie.

As most of the representatives present preferred to submit their figures confidentially, discussion of minimum requirements was postponed until such information had been submitted and considered.

Importers were thereupon requested to submit import figures for 1938 before the end of the week.

A meeting will again be called early next week in connection with the matter.

REFEREES' MTG.

the last few years, and he felt very strongly that the linesmen for these matches should be qualified referees.

2. That referees' fees be increased all round by at least $3, and that the present sliding scale of payment be abolished.

3. That referees should not be allowed to act either as referees where their own units are taking part

4. That the Football Association be requested to have a member of the Referees' Association on their referees' sub-committee.

Ladies' Teams Selected For Charity Hockey On Sunday

The Mainland Ladies' trial game was played at King's Park, on the C.B.A. ground, yesterday, following which the team to oppose the Island Ladies in the charity game on Sunday in aid of the British War Organisation Fund was announced.

Twenty ladies turned out for the game, which was played only a few minutes each way. There were no goals scored.

The Mainland team will be:—Miss J. Hall (St. Andrew's); Miss G. White (St. Andrew's); Mrs. Wilmot (C.B.A.); Miss M. McCaw ("Y" Ladies); Miss I. L. Woolley (C.B.A.); and Miss J. Wong (St. Andrew's); Miss G. Marr (H.K. Ladies); Miss B. Harker ("Y" Ladies); Miss D. McCaw ("Y" Ladies); Miss H. Reid (St. Andrew's); and Miss M. Shand (C.B.S.).

Reserves: Miss B. Parsons (C.B.A.); Miss A. Smith (C.B.A.); Miss F. Wong (St. Andrew's); and Miss B. Longbottom (St. Andrew's).

The Island Team has also been selected, as follows:

Mrs. Lanson (H.K. Ladies); Miss E. M. Gray (H.K. Ladies); Mrs. Strange ("Y" Ladies); Mrs. Stone ("Y" Ladies); Miss K. M. Pocock ("Y" Ladies); and Miss B. Greaves (St. Andrew's); Mrs. Burnett ("Y" Ladies); Mrs. Gardner ("Y" Ladies); Mrs. Skinner (H.K. Ladies); Mrs. Dalziel (H.K. Ladies); and Miss A. Purves (H.K. Ladies).

Dutch Liner Mined Off Thames

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter).—The Dutch liner Spaarndam, 8,857 tons, bound for Rotterdam from South America struck a mine this morning when off the Thames Estuary and her crew of 40 took to the boats.

When a lifeboat reached the vessel she was found to be badly damaged and her crew were taken on board a pilot cutter. The only passenger was an elderly woman.

STEAMER SUNK

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Reuter).—A British steamer, the Royton Grange, 5,000 tons, was sunk in the Atlantic. No lives were lost.

MURDER TRIAL AT SESSIONS

"I will have no hesitation whatsoever in awarding exemplary damages to persons who are detained in circumstances like these. It is a matter which strikes at the very root of the proper administration of justice."

"To think that persons can be stopped by the police is bad enough, but, to think that they can be taken to the police station without any charge being made against them on arrival, is preposterous."

The Chief Justice directed that a full report of what happened to the three men, including accused, be furnished him, as it was a matter, he said, which was of the utmost public importance.

Mr. Prentiss was assisted by Det. Insp. L. R. Whant, while Tang Chi was defended by Mr. Percy Chen, instructed by Mr. A. S. K. Lau.

The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs J. J. Cameron (foreman), H. Turner, H. L. Moors, T. A. Kuester, S. W. da Cruz, Jr., H. W. Pomeroy and Yuen Taiming.

Mr. Prentiss said both Leung and Tang were unemployed and generally spent their evenings near the entrance of Chinese Street and Des Voeux Road Central.

In October, 1938, a boy of 15 named Chan Kam-on won 85 cents from Tang in a game of pai kau. At that time, Tang paid 35 cents, leaving a balance of 50 cents still owing. This balance was not asked for by Chan until September 24 last, and the reason for the delay was because they did not meet during the intervening period.

ASKED FOR MONEY

On that day Chan met Tang in Chinese Street and asked him for the money. Tang replied he could not pay as he had no money and Chan then went away.

On September 26, Chan saw Tang coming out of a gambling house in Chinese Street with some money in his hands. Tang promised to pay a couple of days later and Chan agreed.

On the day of the murder Leung and Chan met Tang. Chan again asked for payment, at the same time saying he wanted to lend 20 cents to Leung.

Words were exchanged and it was alleged Tang went to a stall, got hold of a chopper and struck Leung several blows with it, after which he ran away. Leung was taken to the Queen Mary Hospital.

CONDITION WORSE

Tang was arrested in Wanchai. Meanwhile Leung's condition had become worse and his dying depictions were taken. That statement was incoherent and there were many obvious discrepancies in it.

When charged, Tang said he was struck first by Leung and that he took the chopper and fought him.

Chan Kam-on then gave evidence. Cross-examined by defending counsel, witness said that Leung did not strike accused a blow with his fist. He denied that accused fell back as the result of such a blow and that Leung adopted a fighting attitude. Witness admitted that Leung looked very angry at the time of the altercation.

Witness denied counsel's suggestion that accused fell back and picked up the knife in self-defence.

SAW CHASE

Ng Kiu, coffee stall owner, and Wan Yu-nam, noodle seller, gave evidence of seeing accused chasing Leung with the knife. Wan said that accused cut Leung four times after the latter fell. Before the deceased stumbled, accused did not cut him.

Ng Ngan, former fellow worker of Leung Ki, testified that three months before the incident, Leung was admitted to hospital suffering from a cut wound on his hand. This was, however, denied by the deceased's aunt, Leung So.

After further evidence, the Court adjourned till this morning, when Mr. Chen will open his defence.

The volume of grain exported through the port of Vancouver in the crop year ending July last amounted to 41,432,993 bushels as compared with 12,714,509 bushels in the preceding crop year.
